The Port Arthur Penitentiary

LOCALITY

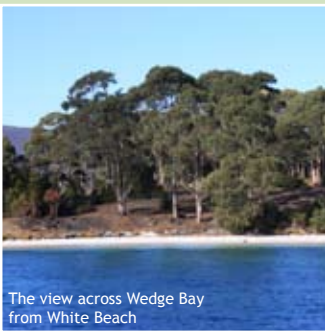

The Tasman Peninsula is one of the most beautiful parts of Tasmania, with rugged coastlines, white beaches, spectacular sunsets and diverse wildlife. The Tasman National Park has a variety of bushwalks to cater to everyone and many of its attractions can be accessed by car. The beaches on the Tasman Peninsula are gorgeous and the perfect place to relax and enjoy the sunsets.

For the adrenaline junkie, the Tasman Peninsula has some of Tasmania's best diving with giant kelp forests, shipwrecks or sea caves to explore; activities that cater to all levels of experience. If extreme surfing is more your style, Shipstern's Bluff may tempt you or the surf off Eaglehawk Neck, which is less extreme but a lot of fun.

The Port Arthur Historic Site is a must-see and for something extra, check out the Coalmines Historic Site in nearby Saltwater River. Hobart is only one-and-a-half hour's drive from White Beach, so a day trip to take in the sights of Hobart is also an option. Along the way stop at Taranna. The Chocoholics will delight at the Federation Chocolate Factory and animal lovers will enjoy the Tasmanian Devil Conservation Park, where you can see the Tassie Devil and feed kangaroos.
